There is a price difference between the good and the others. It amounts, probably, to something, but that doesn't figure when undoubted quality comes at prices like these:

sian government has issued an official note reiterating that the attitude of the powers in regard to the Austro-Russian reform scheme for Macedonia is unchanged, and that consequently neither Turkey nor Bulgaria can expect support from any quarter in the event of open or secret resistance to that scheme.

The government, after pointing out that the suggested reforms were at the outset attended with good results, says the Macedonian agitation spread in Bulgaria on the mistaken conception that Russia would "alter her programme and proclaim herself the champion of the unrealizable plans of the leaders of the revolution."

The Turkish oppression will end, the note says, only when the revolution."

arrocities stopped.

"In view of the thickening complications the Russian and Austrian governments have reiterated their views to this effect both at Sofia and at Constantinopic, and acting on the suggestion of Austria and Fussia all the governments of the powers which signed the treaty of Berlin have instructed their representatives to Turkey and Bulgaria to emphasize their full unanimity in the Austro-Russian work of pacifying the Balkans so as to remove all misconceptions of possible assistance in the event of dangerous enterprises. These representatives have been instructed to make a declaration to the governments of Turkey and Bulgaria as follows:

"The present state of affairs in the Turkish vilayets, which is due to the criminal intentions of committees and revolutionary bands, does not alter the attitude of the powers in regard to the programme of action advanced early in the year by the two powers most interested. Consequently, neither Turkey nor Bulgaria can rely on the support of any power in the event of open or secrt opposition to the realization of this scheme.

"The imperial government hopes this new warning will cenvince Turkey as well as Bulgaria of the fulfillment of the demands made upon them, and cause them to take all the measures in their power for the most serious consequences for both the Octoman empire and Bulgaria."

SOFTA, BULGARIA, Sept. 24.—According to a telegram received here to-day from Kostendill, thirty-six miles from Sofia, six hundred Turks were killed in a 8ght at Kotchani, September 18th. The Turkish force numbered 7,000. After the fight the troops, enraged at their losses, pillaged and burned a number of Bulgares.

perfect transquility, almost approaching apathy, prevails throughout Bulgarla. There is not the slightest outward evidence that the country is on the vergo of war. Even in military direles thee is no excitement, though preparation is going on. The feeling is steadily growing that war is the sole solution to the Maccdonian problem, the only quest on being whether it will come this autumn, or be postponed until spiling.

The preparation for the mobilization of the Bulgarian army have been carried out with singular completeness as to detail and a declaration of war will find the Bulgarians sufficiently prepared.

The details of actrocities by Turkish troops in Monastir received by the Bulgarian government even axceed those already published. The general staff in the Monastir villayet has compiled an elaborate report of events in the districts of Kastoria, between August 21st and September 12th. It comprises a list of wenty-four villagers which were plundered. A great number of houses were burned 572 villagers killed.

The lecture was given under the auspices of the Citizons' Association, and was largely attended. Mr. Tucker spoke in his characteristic manner, and created a great impression, which will no doubt materialize in the near future in the engrement of the facilities for better school work in the town of Barton Heights. The speaker emphasized the right of the State to tax for objects looking to the welfare of the citizens at large; the value of education for the entire man—body, mind and soul; and the duty of every man to be concerned in the betterment of his neighbor's children for the sake of his own.

The address was highly appreciated, and Mr. Tucker was warmly congratulated.

People Think None But a Virginian Should be the State Librarian

The general impression, so far as it can be gathered from expressions heard on the subject, seems to be that the State Library Board of Directors should, if practicable and compatible with the proper rearrangement and classification of the library, choose a Virginian for the position of librarian. Several who have been heard to express an opinion on the subject assert that the library needs to be properly classified and catalogued and lieve that a Virginian can be had who is capable of doing this satisfactorily. If such a man can be had among the appli-cants for the position, it is preferable that one of them be selected. If it be that one of them be selected. PORTLAND, ORE., Sept. 24 .- The Atlantic Express on the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company, which left here at 8:55 o'clock last night, was held up by four masked men an hour later near Corbett station, twenty-one miles east of this city. One of the robbers was shot and killed by Express Messenger Fred. Korner and Engineer Ollie Barrett was seriously wounded by the same bullet. After the shooting the robbers fled without securing any booty. Two of the highwaymon boarded the train at Troutdale, a station eighteen miles east of here, and after the train had got under way they crawled over the tender, and, covering the engineer and fireman with revolvers, told them to stop at mile post 21, which is near Corbett station. As the train slowed down two more appeared. Two of the robbers compelled, the engineer to get out of the cab and accompany them to the leexpress car, while the others watched the fireman. The men carried several sticks of dynamite, and when they came to the baggage car, thinking it was the express far, threw a stick at the door. Express Messenger Korner heard the explosion and immediately secured his rifle and opened fire. The bullet pierced the head of one of the robbers and went through his body, entering the left breast of Engineer Barrett, who was just behind him. Barrett's wound is above the heart and is not necessarily fatal.

Sheriff Story and four deputies left on a special train for the scene of the robbery. Shortly after their arrival there one of the gang of outlaws was found a short distance up the track badly wounded from a charge of buckshot which he had received in the head. He was placed on board the sheriff's special train.
